SARANAC LAKE

Described as a "modern touch with the feel of Gatsby", the renovated Hotel Saranac features a variety of dining options from elegant to an indoor campfire.

A private bath with every room. What? Unheard of in 1927 when the Hotel Saranac opened its doors and welcomed the "Gilded Age" glitterati. Swells from New York and Hollywood followed the Rockefellers and Carnegies and flocked to the Adirondack splendor of Saranac Lake. The centerpiece in the area was the elegant Hotel Saranac. Many owners later, the hotel is emerging from a four-year $30 million restoration and is now part of the Hilton Curio Collection. Now there's a reason to take advantage of those Hilton Honors points you've been saving.

A quick check of prices in late April shows rooms averaging $189 per night and even lower for Hilton Honors folks.
